DETAILED ACTION

Oath/Declaration

1. The oath or declaration is defective. A new oath or declaration in compliance with 37 CFR 1.67(a) identifying this application by application number and filing date is required. See MPEP §§ 602.01 and 602.02.

The oath or declaration is defective because:

The specification to which the oath or declaration is directed has not been adequately identified. See MPEP § 602.

Drawings

2. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a) because they fail to show:

In figure 2: Code Data (212);

In figure 7: Keypad (704);

In figure 10: Outside digital clock (1001),

Display screen (1002),

Display screen (1003),

Keypad (1004),

Entire flip-up component (1005),

Base (where battery and other internal components are stored)

(1006),

Side button (mode) (1007),

Side button (open) (1008),

Art Unit: 2632

as described in the specification. Any structural detail that is essential for a proper understanding of the disclosed invention should be shown in the drawing. MPEP § 608.02(d).

3. The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they include the following reference character(s) not mentioned in the description: element 727 in figure 7 and elements 809 and 810 in figure 8.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d), or amendment to the specification to add the reference character(s) in the description in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(b) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Richmond (U.S. 5,382,948).

Regarding claim 1, Richmond discloses Vehicular Security System with Remote Signaling for Auto Carjacking Functions that discloses the following claimed subject matters:

The claimed onboard control module is met by the Supervisory Control Unit (12) being mounted in a concealed location within a motor vehicle (col3 44-48);

The claimed watch transmitting device for interacting with said onboard control module is met by the supervisory control unit being configured for communication with a miniature remote signaling unit (14) (col3 44-48) that is of such a size that it can be easily carried about the person of the vehicle operator worn as a wrist watch (col1 62-66);

The claimed watch being the means for controlling all functions of the security system and said watch is met by RF signal communication between the remote signaling unit and the supervisory unit are provided for customary alarm signal functions such as arming/disarming, opening and closing door locks, interior lights, etc. (col4 6-11);

The claimed watch transmitting device allowing for constant monitoring is met by the remote signaling unit including a miniature speaker (46) which is used to advise the status of the supervisory control unit (col4 29-33). The term "constant monitoring" is interpreted as the user constantly being updated as to the status of the vehicle and the security system enclosed therein. Therefore by being advised of the status of the supervisory control unit at the remote signaling unit, the goal of "constant monitoring" is achieved.
